

Miki Fujitsubo

Regional Technical Specialist
Senior Landscape Architect / Water Resource Planner
U.S. Army Corps of Engineers
Sacramento District

Over 10 years experience the in private landscape architecture / planning industry and over 20 years of continuing Federal service with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers in engineering and planning including 2 years with the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service in refuge planning. Currently working with the Flood Risk Management Center of Expertise and regionally on the Sacramento River Watershed and Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta studies.

Graduate of Environmental Planning/Landscape Architecture from U.C. Davis; certificate of Environment Planning and Land Use Management from U.C. Extension; licensed landscape architect #2269 State of California; graduate of the SPD Leadership Development Program and the USACE Planning Associates Program.

Married with two college-aged young adults and a brown dog. Interests in outdoor activities, music, and martial arts.